Become a California Campaign School of Excellence

School Plan for Enhancing Civic Education and Outcomes

This resource is designed to support your CMS Leadership Team in planning and in taking a look at the impact your activities had on your school and students. Please feel free to modify the form to better suit your needs. You are invited to send your completed document to Campaign staff so that we can recognize your participation, as well as improve the process and resources we provide for schools.

Part I. Getting Started

A. Based on our discussions thus far, what promising approaches are we interested in addressing? Why are these important for our students?

B. What ideas should we begin to implement?

C. To what extent are the activities in our plan sustainable at our school?

D. How many students and teachers will our plan impact?

Students: _____ Teachers: _____

Is our plan designed to impact any other groups? (parents, community, etc.) If so, how?

Part II. For each of the major components/activities of your plan:

A. CMS promising approach(es) addressed by this component:

B. Activity/program/strategy we will implement to address the promising approach(es): (brief description)

C. What civic competencies (knowledge, skills, dispositions) do we expect to impact?

Part IV. After you have implemented some or all of your activities, consider the outcomes and impact of your plan:

A. How has participating in the Educating for Democracy: California Campaign for the Civic Mission of Schools process impacted our school as a whole?

B. How did our Campaign activities impact students? What did we observe in terms of students' civic knowledge, skills, and dispositions?

C. What will we do next?

D. What recommendations do we have for the Campaign staff to improve the process of becoming a Campaign school or the resources provided to support the process?
